1

Learn & share

Read a book, watch a documentary, or take a course each quarter on a social, civic, or environmental topic, then share one insight with others.

Be Prepared

Set aside time twice a year to review local candidates' priorities and community issues so you're prepared to participate in local elections.

3

Speak Up

Reach out to a local representative, school leader, or community official at least once per quarter to advocate for an issue you care about.

4

Give Back

Invest your skills, time, or financial resources in a nonprofit, club, or community group at least once a month to help advance their mission.
